

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE: COLLABORATIVE PIANO

Student Learning Outcomes

Students graduating from this program will:

- Prepare collaborative piano repertoire using appropriate techniques, resources, and interpretive concepts.
- Demonstrate understanding of text setting, lyric diction, voicing, tone production, pedaling, and ensemble interaction in vocal and instrumental works.
- Apply stylistic and historical knowledge—including voicing, diction, rhythm, dynamics, articulation, phrasing, and interpretation—to collaborative performance.
- Develop musically informed, stylistically appropriate interpretations across diverse genres and periods.
- Rehearse effectively and engage professionally with partners in varied collaborative settings, preparing for high-level performance and career readiness.

Program Requirements

Code	Title	Credits
Required Coursework:
CONSVTY 5503	Advanced Accompanying for Pianists	1
PIANO 5502	Graduate Collaborative Piano	4
CONSVTY 5577	Advanced Vocal Diction (offered every spring semester) <sup>1</sup>	2
Elective Coursework		5
5 credit hours should be chosen from the following courses. Note: CONSVTY 5305A (1 credit), 5503 (1 credit), and Voice 5500A (2 credits) may only be taken once from this list
CONSVTY 5503 or CONSVTY 5305A	Advanced Accompanying for Pianists Principles of Chamber Music
CONSVTY 5571	Collaborative Literature for Piano with Strings (offered fall semester, odd years)
CONSVTY 5572	Collaborative Literature for Piano with Woodwinds and Brass (offered spring semester, even years)
VOICE 5500A	Graduate Voice-Secondary (pending faculty approval, students may choose a different secondary instrument: INSTRUMENT 5500A)
Vocal Literature Select one:
CONSVTY 5566A or CONSVTY 5566B or CONSVTY 5566C or CONSVTY 5566D	Advanced Vocal Literature: French Melodies Advanced Vocal Literature: German Lieder Advanced Vocal Literature: Nationalistic Art Songs Advanced Vocal Literature: 20Th Century Amer & Engl Art Songs
Total Credits		12

<sup>1</sup> Before enrolling, all students in the certificate program must pass the Diction Proficiency Test for French, German, and Italian, or complete remedial diction course CONSVTY 497 with a grade of B- or higher.