

MASTER OF MUSIC EDUCATION

Student Learning Outcomes

Students graduating from this program will:

- MME students will demonstrate a basic understanding of current music education issues and their impact on the education of children.
- MME students will demonstrate a historical perspective on music education practice.
- MME students will demonstrate acceptable musicianship skills in performance, rehearsal, and classroom environments.
- MME students will demonstrate ability to reflect upon their own practice as music educators
- MME students will demonstrate ability to investigate contemporary teaching approaches and techniques available to the music educator.
- MME students will demonstrate the necessary skills to review and design music materials, curriculum, and research related to music teaching and learning.

Required Courses

Code	Title	Credits
CONSVTY 5591G	Pedagogy of Music Theory	3
CONSVTY 5042	Styles and Genres in Music	3
CONSVTY 5574	Contemporary Issues in Music Education	3
choose ONE of the following courses (2 credits total):
CONSVTY 5540A	Seminar In Adv Music Education Methods For Elementry Teachers	2
CONSVTY 5540B	Advanced Methods In Instrumental Music	2
CONSVTY 5540C	Advanced Methods In Choral Music	2
choose ONE of the following courses (3 credits total):
CONSVTY 5589	Academic Portfolio	3
or CONSVTY 5599	Thesis
choose ONE of the following RESEARCH courses (3 credits total):
CONSVTY 5594A	Research and Analysis in Music and Behavior	3
or CONSVTY 5585	Introduction to Descriptive Research in Music
or CONSVTY 5578	Research for Music Teachers
Methods/Materials/Music Electives (e.g., CONSVTY 5445, 5540x, 5582x, 5583x, 5586x, 5587x, Summer Workshops, Applied Music)		8
Electives		5
TOTAL: 30 hours minimum		