School leaders must begin now to envision the nature of a global technical-information-based society and the schooling such a society will require. Our program, which is accredited by the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, prepares leaders for this task.

Applications are currently accepted for spring and summer semesters on the following schedule:

- Spring admission: Apply by December 20th
- Summer admission: Apply by May 15th.

Higher Education Administration

This program supports administrative leaders and educators who seek to enhance their professional competencies and effectiveness in today's increasingly diverse colleges and universities. Application deadline is August 1 for Fall entry, November 15 for Spring entry and April 15 for Summer entry.

Focused areas of study include: student affairs administration, foundations in education, sports administration and exercise sciences, and disabilities studies.

General Requirements for the Master of Arts in Educational Administration

Requirements for a master's degree include a minimum of 30 credit hours but may vary according to emphasis area. There are no thesis options in this degree. Otherwise, the degree follows all General Graduate Academic Regulations and Master's Degree Academic Regulations as outlined by the School of Graduate Studies.
