

PSYCHOLOGY/MUSIC THERAPY DOUBLE MAJOR

Student Learning Outcomes

Students graduating with a double major will:

- Describe psychology's content domains.
- Engage in integrative, science-based reasoning to interpret behavior and solve problems.
- Apply ethical standards to science and practice, and promote community at local, national, and global levels.
- Effectively write, speak, and interact with others.
- Apply psychological content and skills to career goals, and develop professional direction for life after graduation.

Program Requirements

Double majors with the Conservatory may apply up to 6 credits from CONSVTY 342 (<https://catalog.umkc.edu/search/?P=CONSVTY%20342>), CONSVTY 395 (<https://catalog.umkc.edu/search/?P=CONSVTY%20395>), or CONSVTY 435 (<https://catalog.umkc.edu/search/?P=CONSVTY%20435>) toward their psychology electives.