

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE: COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE

Student Learning Outcomes

Students graduating from this program will:

- Solve a variety of real-world problems using real estate fundamentals and analytics.
- Apply knowledge of development, feasibility, finance, investment, management, transaction, and valuation to analyze real estate markets to make decisions.
- Demonstrate design-thinking by identifying, synthesizing, and applying analytical and technological skills to make decisions and develop action plans to solve a range of real estate problems.
- Evaluate the impacts of real estate problems and reconcile differences among decision alternatives incorporating social responsibility, economic viability.
- Communicate professionally and chose effective communication styles based on audience/stakeholder types.

Code	Title	Credits
Required Courses:
RL-EST 5556	Entrepreneurial Real Estate Process	3
RL-EST 5571	Real Estate Finance	3
Electives (Two of the Following):		6
RL-EST 5573	Real Estate Feasibility and Market Analysis
RL-EST 5574	Real Estate Construction and Development
RL-EST 5576	Real Estate Property and Portfolio Management
RL-EST 5577	Real Estate Valuation
RL-EST 5578	Legal Context of Real Estate
Total Credits		12