

J.D./MBA AND J.D./M.P.A. COMBINED-DEGREE PROGRAMS

The School of Law has established combined-degree programs with the Henry W. Bloch School of Business and Public Administration. The program allows students to earn a juris doctor degree and a master of business administration or a master of public administration degree on an accelerated basis through cross-acceptance of some credit hours.

Applicants to the program must satisfy the admission requirements of each school and, if admitted into the program, may enroll in the first year of law school either before or after beginning M.B.A. or M.P.A. courses.

Student Learning Outcomes

Students will demonstrate mastery of core doctrinal knowledge

Students will demonstrate mastery of the skills necessary for objective legal analysis

Students will demonstrate mastery of the skills necessary for effective legal research.

Students will demonstrate mastery of legal writing across formats

Students will demonstrate mastery of the duties of attorneys as members of the legal profession

Students will demonstrate ability to work with people in a professional environment

Students will demonstrate competency in professional work habits

Students will demonstrate entry-level proficiency in lawyering skills