

CANCELLATION OF ENROLLMENT FOR FINANCIAL DELINQUENCY

Students who fail to make a minimum payment and/or accept anticipated aid may be subject to administrative withdrawal for nonpayment during the Fall and Spring semesters. However, classes are not automatically canceled. It is the responsibility of all students to withdraw from classes if they will not be attending the semester. If a student withdraws from classes, he or she may still owe the University full or partial fees in accordance with the UMKC fee refund policy. A minimum payment is required by the first payment deadline regardless of when a student registers in courses for a given semester. Pending financial aid and scholarships do not constitute a minimum payment of fees if an outstanding balance remains. If anticipated financial aid is not received or is not sufficient to cover charges, the student remains responsible for all or remaining charges incurred for the semester.
