

KANSAS RATE

Kansas Rate

Why offer the Kansas Rate (<https://www.umkc.edu/kansas-rate/>)? Because we know the cost of college isn't just about tuition. By using the Kansas Rate, you'll save nearly $14,000 each academic year – money you can use on textbooks, technology, housing or just the cost of life.

Rates are effective beginning in Fall 2018 for undergraduate students.* Residency rules apply. Rates will be applied automatically for Kansas residents, including students who have already been admitted.

To learn more about the Kansas Rate, contact our Admissions team (admit@umkc.edu?subject=Kansas%20Rate%20inquiry%20from%20website) today.

Graduate students in the following Kansas counties are still eligible for the in-state rate:

- Atchison
- Douglas
- Franklin
- Jackson
- Jefferson
- Johnson
- Leavenworth
- Miami
- Osage
- Shawnee
- Wyandotte

* Savings amount of $14,000 is based on cost of tuition for full-time non-resident undergraduate students taking 30 credit hours annually.

 In-state rates are not in effect for graduate students pursuing professional degrees in medicine, dentistry, pharmacy and law.
